

Unipol Group

Unipol Group is one of the leading insurance groups in Europe as well as being leader in Italy in the non-life insurance business (especially MV and health). The ordinary shares of the parent company, Unipol Assicurazioni S.p.A., have been listed on the Italian Stock Exchange (Borsa Italiana) since 1990, and are also on the FTSE MIB® and MIB® ESG indexes.

Its main shareholders include companies that form part of the Italian cooperative movement. The Group employs over 13,000 employees to serve 17.6 million customers through the most extensive agency network in Italy.

At consolidated level, the Group recorded direct insurance income of €17.4bn at 31 December 2025, of which €9.6bn in non-life income and €7.8bn in life income.

Carlo Cimbri is the Chair of Unipol Assicurazioni and Matteo Laterza is the Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director.

The Group employs an integrated strategy to offer a broad portfolio of insurance products and services. It also operates in the healthcare and supplementary pension areas to give people, households and businesses more security and confidence for the future, ensuring protection, quality of life and long-term sustainable growth to benefit all its stakeholders: shareholders, customers, agents, employees, suppliers and the community at large.

Insurance & Health Business

With regard to the insurance services business, the Group mainly operates through parent company Unipol Assicurazioni S.p.A., a leading Italian company in non-life businesses, especially motor TPL.

It also operates in the direct vehicle insurance business through Linear Assicurazioni, and Siat, the only Italian company that deals exclusively with transport and aviation insurance.

Unipol also plays an active role in promoting innovation and digital transformation through Leithà which aims to maximise the value of the vast quantity of data held by the insurance group through intensive use of algorithms and innovative ICT solutions. The idea is to gain and maintain a competitive edge over competitors and meet the needs of a constantly evolving market.

In the health business, UniSalute is the leading health insurance company in Italy and collected €1.17bn in premiums in 2025. The Group also owns Santagostino, a network of specialist outpatient clinics which combines high quality with accessibility.

The Group also operates outside Italy and its subsidiary DDOR Novi Sad is one of the main insurance companies in Serbia.

Mobility & Telematic and Payment Services

The Group is an all-round partner in the entire life cycle of the mobility business, especially through UnipolMove, the main alternative in the area of electronic toll collection and created by UnipolTech, which manages the online payment products of the Group, and UnipolRental, the largest fully Italian long-term rental company on the market.

Bancassurance

The Unipol Group also controls the bancassurance channel through Arca Vita and Arca Assicurazioni held by parent company Unipol Assicurazioni S.p.A. (which distribute life and non-life policies through the Banca Popolare dell'Emilia Romagna along with other banks), in addition to joint ventures with leading Italian banks.

Real Estate and Other Sectors

It is one of the main operators in Italy in the real estate sector in terms of value of assets managed, and owns properties of great historical, symbolic and architectural significance. It created the Urban Up project to study and redevelop some important properties in order to maximise their value.

The Group is an important player in the Italian hotel sector with the Gruppo UNA brand; it also has interests in the agricultural sector, through Tenute del Cerro, and in port facilities with Marina di Loano.
